

Chapter 11 Study Guide

1. Define creole.
2. Define Lowell girl.
3. Define capitalist.
4. What was the first thing factory owners needed to finance their businesses?
5. What was an unintended result of Henry Clay's American System?
6. Why was Simon Bolivar known as "The Liberator"?
7. What is one way in which Americans improved their roads in the early 1800s?
8. What is one reason Lowell, Massachusetts, was called a model factory town?
9. How did the United States gain Florida from Spain?
10. How did congress help American industry after the War of 1812?
11. What effect did sectionalism have on the Era of Good Feelings?
12. Describe daily life in a factory in the early 1800s.
13. What led to the creation of the Monroe Doctrine?
14. Analyze the effects of the Industrial Revolution on the United States. Then, explain the economic changes it brought to the nation, its impact on women and daily life, and its impact on population trends.
15. Explain how transportation improvements in the United States in the early 1800s were important to economic development.