

Study Guide
Chapter 15

1. Define Hudson River School
2. Define Great Awakening.
3. Define Falls Convention.
4. Define Underground Railroad.
5. Why do most of the Underground Railroad routes pass through northern states and point toward British territory?
6. What was the proposal of the American Colonization Society?
7. What resolution of the Seneca Falls Convention was barely passed?
8. How did the Second Great Awakening encourage the spread of social reform?
9. Describe a woman's situation in the 1800s.
10. What was an accomplishment of educational reformers in the 1800s?
11. What was a central influence of the styles of American painters before 1800?
12. What was a common theme in the poetry of Walt Whitman?
13. What did temperance groups view as the most serious problem of the 1800s?
14. The reform movement of the mid-1800s opened many people to opportunities that were previously denied them. Using examples from the text, examine three reforms and explain how each reform benefited a specific population in the 1800s.
15. Summarize how artists and writers broke free from European traditions in the mid-1800s to develop a unique American vision,.

Combine information related to artistic and literary themes when supporting your main ideas.